

Profile

Mr. Mukesh Kumar without a doubt is an outstanding Professional and amongst the most valuable assets of NESPAK. His sense of responsibility and complete dedication to NESPAK are second to none. A very able, highly mature competent and regarded professional who has earned his position by sheer hard work and selfless motivation to take NESPAK to greater heights.

Mr. Kumar is the knowledgeable, versatile, energetic and above all a most responsible engineer. He has more than 20 years of experience in the field of Civil Engineering. His interpersonal skills have brought many Projects to NESPAK towards the national cause. As a Principal Engineer, he is working hard with dedication for acquiring more business for a country's organization by enhancing its image worldwide. He is an excellent at public relations, outstanding business promotion skills and above all a thorough gentleman.

Mr. Kumar is pursuing PhD in Civil Engineering from MUET, Jamshoro. He has completed Master of Civil Engineering from NED University of Engineering & Technology, Karachi and he has also completed a certification program in Project Management from LUMS, Lahore.

In addition to above, Mr. Kumar is also performing welfare activities in NESPAK and he remained an elected Vice President, NEPWA for more than 5000 employees of the NESPAK.

Besides the above, Mr. Kumar is also a Central Council Member of Institution of Engineers in Pakistan, IEP and secured his position for a consecutive 3rd time.