

PUBLIC ALERT – PEC REGULATION / POLICY FOR ADMISSION IN ENGINEERING PROGRAM

It is to inform that the provision for Zero semester given under PEC Regulations on Engineering Education Article 2(a)-i for provisional admission for the students who have secured 50% and above but below 60% marks in F.Sc. examination for admission in any engineering program in Pakistan, has been withdrawn by this Council w.e.f. admissions in Fall-2015 and onwards (Ref: Recommendations of 32nd Vice Chancellors Committee meeting approved/endorsed in 18th PEC Governing Body Meeting held on March 26, 2015).

Accordingly, the SRO has been approved by the competent authority and forwarded for notification through concerned ministry. Therefore, all HEIs are advised not to adopt such practice in current admissions on the basis of proviso of additional Zero Semester for provisional admissions.

Looking forward towards adherence of PEC regulations and policies, please.
